Healthy Bladder and Healthy Bowels

Check your child has plenty of fluids - a minimum of 6 – 8 drinks every day.

Don't limit their drinks to help them stay dry... it doesn't work! The bladder needs to be properly filled and emptied to behave properly.

If your child is struggling to get dry in the daytime despite plenty of work on healthy bladder and bowels, read...

ERIC's Guide to Childhood Daytime Wetting

The bladder and bowels are closely related – if your child is constipated their tummy may be so full of poo that it makes their bladder misbehave! So, constipation can cause wee problems as well as poo problems. Learn to spot it and know what to do about it.

Your child should pass soft stools - Type 4 on the chart - at least four times a week.

If they are passing fewer poos than this, and/or harder poos, they might be constipated...

Leaking runny poo (Type 7) can also mean constipation...

If you're worried see your GP - your child may need some medicine to help them poo. The sooner the better - don't let it become a long term problem. Some nurses can prescribe medicines too.

Talk to your School Health Nurse for advice.

What about Night time?

Your child may still be wet at night – if so don't worry! This is quite normal. Some children are dry at night soon after achieving success in the daytime – for others it is much later.

The first step for everyone is to work on a healthy bladder and healthy bowels – so keep an eye on those drinks and always watch for constipation.

Make sure your child gets into the habit of having their last drink an hour before bedtime, and then doing a wee last thing before sleep.

Make sure their mattress is protected with a waterproof cover so accidents don't matter!

Some children do struggle to get dry at night - check out the ERIC website or read this leaflet for more information...
